

Procedures Governing Press Interviews, Research Inquiries and Related Requests for Contact with CRE Personnel

- As a result of the growth in the number and popularity of CRE websites CRE will no longer attempt to respond to all the significant inquiries it receives. Consequently CRE is institutionalizing minimally invasive procedures in order to provide responses to what it considers to be the most significant requests. It should be assumed that all requests will be honored by a phone conversation not an in-person interview.
- All inquiries should be sent to this address to ensure your request is given a timely consideration: <http://www.thecre.com/contact.html>
- Unfortunately we will not be able to respond to all requests; consequently if you do not receive a response within ten working days CRE will not be in a position to honor your request.
- In order that CRE be prepared to address your issue in a timely manner and to provide CRE a basis for allotting sufficient time to your request please provide an agenda for the meeting or describe the issue you wish to be addressed by CRE.
- All interviews will be defined by a date, phone number to call, time of initiation and time of termination of the interview.
